Broukards Saved.

The sales of the Moxie Nerve Food are said to aggregate 5,023,741 bottles the first 15 months. It is estimated that it has saved tain, H. B. Hackett, 225,000 drunkards and restored 389,000 nervous wrecks. Its popularity has never been exconded in the history of trade. There are but few dealers in the U. S. who do not sell it. People who have told their friends that the liquor and tobacco habits are too strong to be broken off, positively have no excuse now. It is known all over the country that the Moxie Nerve Food is a substitute for both, leaving no morbid appetites or bad effects, but solid, vigor-

OHIO AT GETTYSBURG. Kineteen Regimental Monuments Dedicated on the Battiefield.

Sept. 14 was "Ohio Day "at Gettysburg. The dedication of the 19 Obis regimental monuments was announced to take place at 10 o'clock, and promptly at 1630 the 14th Ohio, National Guard, filed from its camp on East Cemetery Hill to the town and escorted Gov. Foraker and his staff to the scene of dedication. The line of march was out Baltimore street, along which the Union soldiers retreated after the | 20 men. bloody struggle of the 1st day of July, '63, to the camp. The troops were reviewed by the Governor, and then the party entered the National Cemetery, the most beautiful in the country, and drove to the rostrum. Promptly at 10 o'clock the 14th Regiment Band played an overture, after which prayer was delivered by Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., of Columbus, O., Charlain of the regiment. The Battle Hymn of the Republic was sung by Miss Anne Marie de Beck, of Cincinnati, and Gen. H. A. Axime, Adjutant-General of Obio, followed in an address on "Ohio troops in the battle of Gettysburg." His speech was mainly statistical. An address, "The Memorial Commission and Its Work." by Hon. Emil Kiesewetter, Auditor of Ohio, was next in order. He told of the trinis and tribulations which they had had with some of the contractors, and was followed by the band in "Inflammatus," from "Stabat Binter." When the music had died away Gen. Rebinson, Secretary of State of Ohio, arese. POLITICAL.

Col. Fred. Grant Nominated for Secretary of State of New York.

At the New York Republican State Convention last week Senator Evarts nominated Col. Fred. D. Grant for Secretary of State in a speech highly eulogistic both of Col. Grant and of Gen. Grant, and which was frequently applauded. tremendous applause, and Col. Grant's appearance was the signal for another demonstration of enthusiasm. He modestly came forward and said: "Gentlemen, for the honor which you have conferred upon me I am truly grateful. I shall endeavor to do my duty. I thank you." The ticket was then completed as follows: Controller, Judge Jesse Lamoreux, Saratoga; State Treasurer, James H. Carmichael, Erie; Attorney-General, James A. Dennison, Fulton; State Engineer and Surveyor, O. H. P. Cornell, Tompkins. The platform states that the Republican party, by all honorable means, seeks restoration to power in the State and in the Nation, because of the unchallenged record of history attesting its administrative successes in war time, in the period of restoration and pacification, in executive, legislative and financial achievements, in the purity and efficiency of its methods, and in the lasting benefits conferred upon the people, in legislation, the egregious blunders of the MIHE WOOD IN THE WOO gress, many of whose acts are to the detriment INFANTS phasized the wisdom and necessity of such restoration. It is charged that the Democratic party has exposed its weakness, broken its pledges of reform, placed incompetent men in position, disorganized the Postal Service and obstructed business in the other Departments. ciple of protection of American labor and American industries; refers to President Cleveland's hypocritical pretenses of Civil Service reform; asserts that persecution of the workingman in the South and the denial of his civil rights causes degradation, low wages and inferior products, and demands a free ballot and a fair count for every citizen. It says the veterans of the Union armies and navies are entitled to liberal consideration for all public preferment and should receive generous care and adequate pensions, and refers to the flippant, snearing language of President Cleveland's pension vetoes as insulting to the veterans and degrading to the executive. It calls for laws against pauper immigration and the importation of contract labor, and recommends local option and high license in regard to the liquor traffic.

EXHIBITION -OF-REAL WAR

Actual Photographs, TAKEN ON THE BATTLEFIELDS.

During the great war of 1861 to 1865 our Government employed skillful photographers to take views for the War Department, of all the interesting historical scenes of the war. Forts, Regiments, Entreries, The Wounded, The Dead, The Hospitals, Burying the Dead after the Battle, The Prisoners, The Picket Lines, The Battlefields, etc., etc. All of those wonderfully interesting scenes at Fredericksburg, Antietam, Gettysburg, Atlanta, Charleston, Lookout Mountain, Chattanoega, and the many other battledelds of that great war are shown EXACTLY AS THEY LOCKED. We have made some experiments in exhibiting selections of these views to the public. As may repected the veterans are full of enthusia fimiliar scenes are again brought before them with such startling and vivid realism; but the interest is by no means confined to the old soldlers. Citizens and ladles and children are among the most enger and inferested speciators. We wish to retain the State of Connecticut where we reside—as our special territory for the exhibi-tion of the war scenes. We will appoint in each of the other states one or two persons to exhibit these views. We are having some powerful lenses made to show the war scenes to the best advantage. We want reliable and enterprising persons only. For full particulars and terms send your address and a two-cent stamp to TAYLOR & HUNTINGTON, No. 2 State St., Hartford, Conn. or come to Hartford and see the views on exhibition. These are not imaginary scenes but Real War Views, photographed "at the front," during the war. Any old soldier will recognize the genuineness of these war views at a glance. It is an exhibition that pleases the public and pays the exhibitor. Mention The National Tribune.

WANTED PATENTS!

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT?

You can ascertain if your invention is patentable by sending to GEORGE E. LENION, of Washington, D. C., a description and rough sketch or (if you can) a model of your invention, and upon receipt of the same he will make an examination and inform you as to whether in his aminim, your invention is new and patentally. whether, in his opinion, your invention is new and patentable, and if it is advisable to proceed with the case. For this information and examination no charge is made. If you desire a full report and copies of previous patents (if there are any) which appear to be similar to your invention, you should have made a Special Examination, the charge for said examination being $5. An inventor should always take advantage of this special examination before going to the expense of having a model made and filing formal application papers in the U.S. Patent Office.

WHAT WILL A PATENT COST?

If, after a special examination, you are advised that our invention is patentable, send the estimated cost of the drawings and $15 to pay the first Government fee. The application will then be prepared, filed and presecuted without further expense to the applicant until the Patent Office Examiner admits the patentability of the invention or the case is officially allowed.

After the application has been declared to be patentable the attorney's fee of $25 is due, but before the patent can issue a second Government fee of $20 must be paid, thus making the total cost of patent in ordinary cases (exclusive of drawings) $55. (exclusive of drawings) $55.
A special examination and report will cost $5, which amount is applied as part of attorney's fee should an application for patent be proceeded with within 60 days rom date of special report.

The attorney's fee is only contingent in cases where a special examination has first been made and a favora-Thus you know beforehand whether you are going to secure a patent or not, and no attorney's fee is charged unless a patent is obtained. An attorney whose fee deunless a patent is obtained. An attorney whose fee depends on his success in obtaining a patent will not advise you that your invention is patentable unless it really is, so far as his best judgment can aid in determining the question; hence you can rely on the advice given after a special examination.
